

David Baldinger

Born: 1961 in Akron, Ohio.

Lives in Greensburg, Pennsylvania, United States

A Cartoonist, Illustrator, Poster Designer and Photoshop Professional, David since 2008 is working as a freelancer photographer and artist

Education:

- Graduated Greensburg Salem High School, Greensburg, Pennsylvania in 1979
- Central Westmoreland Vocational Technical School, Certificate of Completion, Commercial Art 1976 - 1979
- Graduated with an Associate in Specialized Technology degree from the Art Institute of Pittsburgh, 1979 - 1982

Work

- Served in The US Air Force 1982-1988 including the Pennsylvania Air National Guard. He was stationed at RAF Mildenhall, England, Shaw AFB, South Carolina and the Air Guard in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
- Lab Technician for Aerial Graphics, Jeannette, Pennsylvania 1988
- Public Relations Photographer, Westmoreland County Community College, Youngwood, Pennsylvania 1989-1995
- Photographer, Latrobe Bulletin, Latrobe, Pennsylvania 1995-1996
- Bored slave, OfficeMax, Greensburg, Pennsylvania 1996-1999
- Horrified Customer Service Representative, Dish Network, East McKeesport, Pennsylvania
- Cartoonist for the People's Weekly World (The official newspaper of the Communist Party USA), Chicago, Illinois 2001 - 2008

Cartoons Published and Exhibited in:

- America In the Twenty-First Century: Opposing Viewpoints by Thomson-Gale/Greenhaven Press 2006 0-7377-2924-4
- Iran Cartoon "Holocaust & Free Speech" exhibition, Tehran, Iran 2006
- Iran Cartoon "Military Occupation" exhibition
- Don Quichotte "Stop the War" exhibition
- Fire Humor Magazine no. 2 - 2013